DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claim 1, drawn to an antibody which binds to PSCA, classified in class 530, subclass 388.85.
 - II. Claims 53-56 and 73, drawn to a method for inducing an immune response in a subject having a cancer, classified in class 514 subclass 2.
 - III. Claims 57-72, drawn to a PSCA protein, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Groups I and III represent separate and distinct products which are made by materially different methods, and are used in materially different methods which have different modes of operation, different functions and different effects. The antibody of Group I, the protein of Group III are all structurally and chemically different from each other. The polypeptide is made by translation of mRNA, while the antibody is raised by immunization. Furthermore, the, the polypeptide can be used for methods of treatment, while the antibody can be used to immunopurify the polypeptide, for example. The examination of all groups would require different searches in the U.S. Patent shoes and the scientific literature and would require the consideration of different patentability issues. Thus the inventions I and III are patentably distinct.

Art Unit: 1642

Inventions III and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the protein can be used in a materially different method such as to produce an antibody in a mouse which does not have cancer in addition to the materially different method of Group II which requires an immune response in a subject having cancer.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and different classifications, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: If Group II is elected then applicant is required to elect one of the following species

Species A: prostate cancer

Species B: prostate cancer metastasized to bone

Species C: ovarian cancer

Species D: tonsil cancer

Species E: bladder cancer

Species F: stomach cancer

Species G: kidney cancer

Species H: testicular cancer

Species I: small intestinal cancer

Species J: colon cancer

Species K pancreatic cancer.

The species are distinct because each cancer has its own morphology and specific characteristics and art on one cancer would not necessarily be art on another cancer.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 53-56 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
